

To the Worthy INDEPENDENT FREE
BURGESSES, of Newcastle,
GENTLEMEN,

THE flattering Reception which I met with at the Halls of the Incorporated COMPANIES Yesterday, and the very decided and respectable Majority with which I was honoured this Day, upon the Shew of Hands in Common Hall, demand my most grateful Acknowledgments.

Permit me, Gentlemen, to assure you, that should I be sent to Parliament by your unbiassed Suffrages, I will endeavour to discharge the Duty of an honest and faithful Representative.

A Continuance of your Support will confer on me the highest Honour a Subject is capable of receiving, and lay me under the most lasting Obligation.

I am, GENTLEMEN,
Your most obliged, and
Faithful humble Servant,

NEWCASTLE,
March 31, 1784.

CHARLES BRANDLING.
